

ADULT MUSIC PROGRAMS

Colorado Music Festival & Center for Musical Arts

visit for a full catalog!

COMusic.org

200 E. Baseline Rd
Lafayette, CO 80026
303-665-0599

Musical Conversations with Faye

Oscar Hammerstein described musical theater as “a nightly miracle.” It is truly indigenous American theatrical form, and so audiences continue to be thrilled, entertained, and impassioned night after night, show after show. Join Faye Nepon for interesting conversations about American Musical Theater, its history, and fascinating development.

Day & Time: Wednesdays, 10am-11am
Fall: October 9-November 13 (6 classes)
Winter/Spring: February 12-March 19 (6 classes)
Tuition: $60/term
Instructor: Faye Nepon

Rocky Mountain Concert Band

Whether you have been playing for a short time, a long time, or a long time ago, this group is open to woodwinds, brass, and percussion instrumentalists. No formal audition is required but participants are expected to know major scales and be comfortable with intermediate repertoire that will encompass all genres, including popular, march, and symphonic. At least two public performances are held during the year.

Day & Time: Thursdays, 7:15pm-9:15am
Fall: September 12 - December 12 (13 classes)
Winter/ Spring: January 16-May 1 (15 classes)
Tuition: Fall - $50
Winter/Spring - $60
Instructors: Walt Kehn & Steve Christopher

Interested in private music lessons?
Register for a private lesson time before 2:30pm, Monday-Friday to receive a 10% discount.
Call for more info! 303-665-0599

Bell'A'Cappella

This women's ensemble explores mostly a cappella repertoire of all styles, with an emphasis on ear training and vocal technique. Community outreach performances are scheduled regularly. New members are accepted through the third rehearsal of each term. Must be able to match pitches to join.

Day & Time: Mondays, 7pm-9pm
Fall: August 26-December 9 (12 classes)
Winter/ Spring: January 6-May 12 (16 classes)
Tuition: Fall - $140 | Winter/Spring - $200
Instructor: Faye Nepon

Broadway Boomers

Adults, come and play! Many of you have raised kids, paid taxes, worked hard, walked your dogs over hills and dales, and now it's your time to let loose. This unique class is for older adults who love to sing and are inspired to perform Broadway musical theater.

Day & Time: Saturdays, 10am-12:30pm &
1:30pm-4pm; Tuesdays, 6:30pm-9pm
Fall: Saturdays, Sept. 7-Dec.7 (13 classes);
Tuesdays, Sept. 3-Dec. 3 (13 classes)
Winter/Spring: Saturdays, Jan. 11-April 19 (13 weeks);
Tuesdays, Jan. 7-April 15 (13 weeks)
Tuition: $600/year. Saturday afternoon
(no class Oct. 12 or Nov. 9) is $557/year.
Instructors: Faye Nepon, director
Deborah Schmit-Lobis and
Noah Barkan, musical collaborators

Other Programs for Adults

Call 303-665-0599 or visit COMusic.org to get a 2013/2014 catalog and to learn about other great programs for seniors including the Ukulele Social Club, Early Music Studies, CMA Jazz Ensemble and CMA Jazz Combo for Adults.

Music for All... For Life!
Tuition assistance available.